

— LEARNING CENTER —

Owned and Operated by Speech Language Pathologists

PARENTING ON THE SPECTRUM: A SURVIVAL GUIDE

One of the greatest challenges, can be parenting a child on the spectrum. Parents can exhaust themselves being REACTIVE, rather than PROACTIVE. This presentation shares practical information for parents, from how to prevent and/or deal with challenging behaviors, to how to organize the home to support positive outcomes. As the old adage says, “an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure!”

AUGUST 22, 2016 6:00-8:00 PM

Limited Space

RSVP by August 11th at info@readingllcenter.com

or by phone at

703-821-1364

Fee: $40 per person

Meet Dr. Adams

Lynn Adams has been a practicing speech-language pathologist for over 30 years. She received the PhD from the University of Tennessee, and her BS and MS degrees from Florida State University. Her areas of expertise are Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD) and Early Intervention. Dr. Adams has more than 18 years of university teaching experience. She also worked in the public school setting for a total of 8 years, 4 of which were spent as the ASD specialist for a school system near Savannah, GA. She is the author of 2 books addressing ASD.

THE READING AND LANGUAGE LEARNING CENTER

8229 Boone Blvd,
Suite 660
Vienna, VA 22182